Acknowledgments

The family wishes to express its deepest gratitude for the prayers, kind words, expressions of love, and thoughtful gestures during this time of bereavement. You have been a blessing, and we are thankful. Our prayer is that our Heavenly Father bestows blessings upon each of you for your acts of kindness.

THE FAMILY

A Silent Tear

Just close your eyes and you will see
All the memories that you have of me
Just sit and relax and you will find
I'm really still there inside your mind

Don't cry for me now I'm gone
For I am in the land of song
There is no pain, there is no fear
So dry away that silent tear

Don't think of me in the dark and cold
For here I am, no longer old
I'm in that place that's filled with love
Known to you all, as "up above"

A Life to be Remembered

Robert Lewis Ross, III, affectionately known as "Bear," was born on October 20, 1957, in Montezuma, Georgia, to Robert Ross, Jr. and Jurry Mae Ross. He grew up in a loving family and pursued his education in the Peach County School System, proudly graduating with the class of 1975.

Following his graduation, Robert enlisted in the United States Army, where he served his country with honor. After being honorably discharged, he returned to Peach County, dedicating his professional life to the Peach County School System and later to Blue Bird Body Company, from which he eventually retired.

Robert found joy in simple pleasures, often spending his free time fishing and working on cars. He was known for his warm spirit and willingness to lend a helping hand.

He was preceded in death by his father, Robert Ross, Jr., and five siblings: Donella Ross, Ronald Ross, Stella Ross, James Ross and Tony Ross.

Robert leaves behind his loving mother, Jurry Mae Ross; his special nephew, Robert Ross; IV; his aunt, Savannah McKenzie; his uncle, Buck Mitchell; and his devoted cousin, Larry Lindsey. He is also survived by a host of other nieces, nephews, and many sorrowing friends who will cherish his memory.

Robert's life touched many, and his legacy will live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved him.
