

Dorothy Irene Blouin

Dorothy was born on June 26, 1938, in Moorhead, Minnesota, passed away on June 11, 2025. She was the daughter of Theodore (Ted) and Anna Helgeson (Berg) and grew up in Moorhead, MN. On February 28, 1958, she married Joen Blouin, and together they raised their two daughters, Jennifer and Diana, while residing in Wahpeton, North Dakota, before later moving to Hudson, Wisconsin.

Dorothy was a homemaker who took great joy in spending time with her family and friends. She had a passion for playing cards, Farkle, crocheting, and nurturing her garden. Above all, Dorothy was deeply committed to her faith. As a baptized member of Jehovah's Witnesses since 1948, she cherished the opportunity to teach others about the Bible. Her hope resided in the promise of resurrection and the future fulfillment of God's will, where all sickness, sorrow, pain, old age, and death will be no more, as described in Revelation 21:4.

She is survived by her daughters, Jennifer Banyai (Neil) and Diana Hovland, as well as her grandsons, Ty and Blake Hovland.

Dorothy was preceded in death by: Theodore Helgeson, Anna Helgeson, Joen Blouin, Margie Graalum, Garf Graalum.
