Obituary

On November 4, 1943, in Paris, Texas, a radiant light named Mary Ruth Pittman was born. Mary, known for her compassionate nature, lived a fulfilling life that positively impacted many around her before she departed this world on May 24, 2026. Mary was a pillar of strength for her family, the reliable and humble eldest of eleven children, who grew to become an integral part of her community in Denver, Colorado. A woman of unwavering faith, Mary was a dedicated member of the Clayton Church of Christ. Her thoughtful demeanor and love for others were reflected in her life's work. As the Scripture says, "And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works." (Hebrews 10:24)

Mary was an educator by profession, having spent many years teaching in elementary school. She was not just a teacher within the confines of a classroom, but also in life, imparting valuable lessons to her two sons, Allen and Victor Pittman. Beyond her professional life, Mary was the life of the party, winning trophies for basketball, billiards and swimming. Her enthusiasm for life was contagious to everyone who met her. Mary was also the President of the Ace of Spades Club and a traveling saleswoman, a testament to her diverse interests and skills.

Mary was preceded in death by her loving parents, Harvey and Martha Pittman, and four of her siblings.

Mary's memory will be fondly cherished by her surviving family: sons Allen and Victor Pittman, her six siblings Vada Mae Pittman, Maude Braxton, Gayle Marie Adams, Sophia Pittman, Rocky Pittman, and Barbara Davis, her four grandchildren Victor Adams, Kenyatta Adams, Dominic Bishop, and Alexis Pittman, nine great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, and extended family.

Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun;
Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.
