Obituary

Mr. Charles E "Stacy" Wade, 87, passed away in Savannah, Georgia, on March 22, 2025. Born on September 19, 1937, in Savannah and was a lifelong resident. He was preceded in death by his father, George A. Washington Wade; his mother, Bessie Lee Butler Wade; his sister Bernice Wade Bryant; his brother George Wade; his sister Evelyn Wade; daughter Joann Wade.

He attended Woodville Thompkins High School of West Savannah and played football. In the mid-1970s, he worked as a driver helper for Lykes Meat Company before transitioning into car sales at Bowyer Motors of Savannah. Later in his career, he became a member of the local Longshoremen of Savannah and eventually worked as a security lieutenant for Sizemore Security in the 2000s until his retirement.

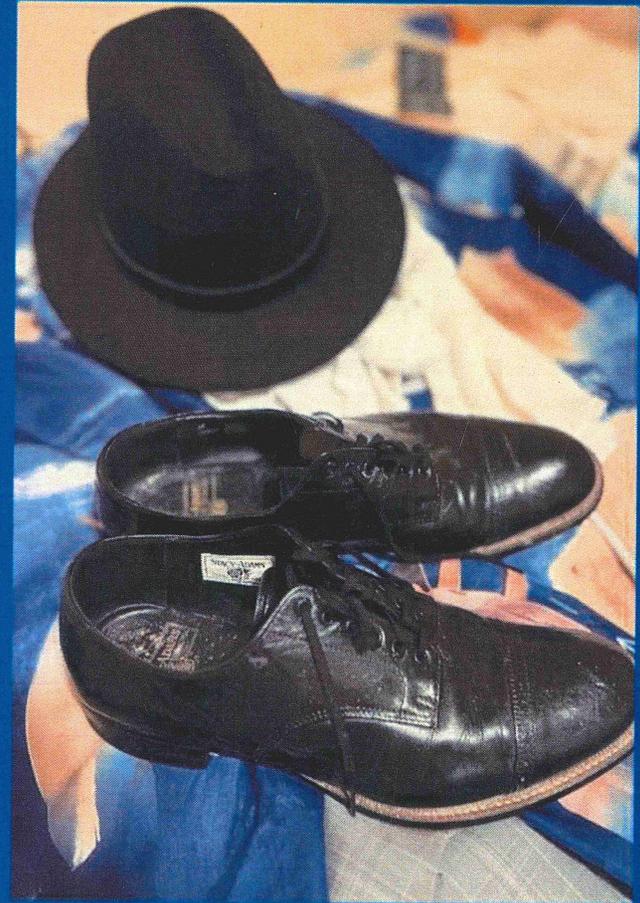

A man of many interests, Charles was known for his love of Motown music. He especially enjoyed listening to Smokey Robinson, The Four Tops, and The Temptations—often jamming to their hits and sharing his enthusiasm with those around him. He also cherished spending time with friends at local clubs, restaurants, and the union hall, where he could swap stories and enjoy good company.

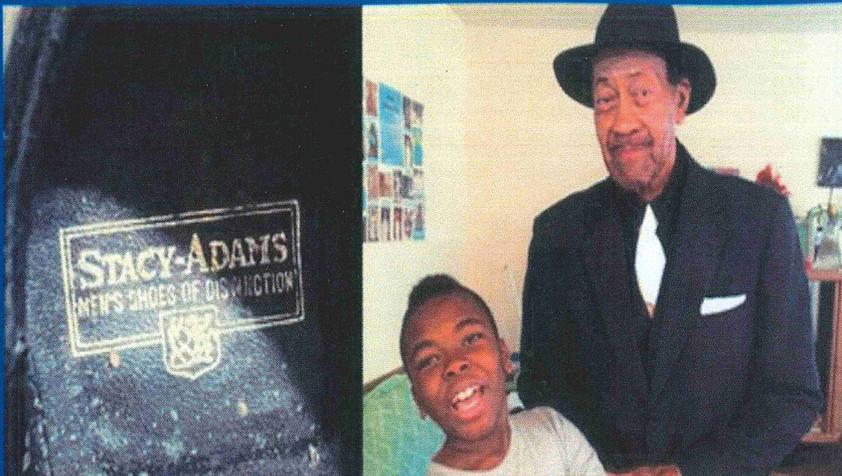

Above all else, Charles was devoted to his family. He remained close to his siblings throughout his life and took great pride in being a loving father and grandfather. His grandson held a special place in his heart and adored every moment they spent together. Known for his sweet nature and fun-loving spirit, Charles had a knack for storytelling—always ready to spin a tale or boast about life's adventures with charm and humor.

Charles is survived by his sister Minnie Wade Thompson, daughter TaWandrea C. Bland, son Connell Wade, grandson Mekhai-Lucas T., his special friend Betty Cleveland, and a host of nieces, nephews, grandnieces and nephews, great-nieces and nephews, and great-great-nieces and nephews.

a little bit of body text

“Let not your heart be troubled; you believe in God, believe also in Me. In My Father’s house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself; that where I am, there you may be also. And where I go you know, and the way you know.” John 14: 1-4
