OBITUARY

Cleo “Jumpy” Addison was born on September 24, 1941, in the Old Field community of St. Stephen, South Carolina, to Isiah and Beulah Addison. On Thursday, May 29, 2025, Cleo was peacefully called home.

Jumpy was a man full of life, love, and laughter. In his younger years, he worked in construction and as a semi-truck driver. He was also a proud semi-professional baseball player, playing with the Black Terrains League and Club La Rouge. Whether on the field, in the kitchen, or on the dance floor, Jumpy made his presence known—he was often the last to arrive and the last to leave, and always the loudest in the room.

He loved to dance, cook, and share stories, and his vibrant personality left a lasting impression on everyone he met.

Jumpy was preceded in death by his parents, Isiah and Beulah Addison, and two of his children, Calvin Green and Cleo Scott.

He leaves to cherish his memory: 19 surviving children; his loving siblings: Nancy Davis, Rosetta White, Oralee Wallace (Jerri), Lilla Mae Harmon (Curtis), Lerline Gadsden (Isiah), and Nathan “Stack” Addison; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, family, and friends. Among all his beloved family, his dear sister Nancy Davis held a uniquely cherished place in his heart. He also shared a special bond with his nephew Hosea Addison, and with Richard and Carlene Freeman, who were more than landlords—they were family.

Remember Me

*Remember me with smiles, not tears,
For all the joy through all the years.
Recall the closeness that was ours—
A love as sweet as fragrant flowers.
Don't dwell on thoughts that cause you pain,
We'll see each other once again.
I am at peace... try to believe,
It was my time... I had to leave.
But what a view I have from here!
I see your face, I feel you near.
I follow you throughout the day,
You're not alone along the way.
And when God calls you, you will be
Right by my side... right here with me.
'Til then, I'll wait by Heaven's door,
We'll be united... evermore.*
