

In Loving Memory

Janet Abel

1939 ~ 2025

Her life a round of usefulness.

Of service and of love

Has brought her Father's blessings here, and rich reward above

To meet with those she loved on earth,

she will rejoice and know

And realize the crowning joy of a faithful life below

We'll miss her but would not call her back to feel distress and pain

But ask our Father strength to live, that we in joy may meet again.
