

The Last Mile Of The Way

If I walk in the pathway of duty,
If I work until the close of the day,
I shall see the king in his beauty,
When I've gone the last mile of the way.

If I were, for Christ to proclaim the glad story,
If I see for his sheep who gone astray,
I'm sure he will show me in his glory,
When I've gone the last mile of the way.

When I've gone the last mile of the way,
I shall rest at the close of day,
For I know there are joy awaiting,
When I've gone the last mile of the way.

Darrell leaves to cherish his memory his loving mother, Joanna Davis-Parks, two sisters Lisa Parks and Trena Parks-Bradley (Michael), his son Tyrone Brown, three grand-children, Jaylen, Savannah, and Lianna, two nieces Tradawn Parks and Davia Echols-Dicupe, one great-niece Temira White and two great-nephews, Cameron Height Jr. and Edward Bracey III and a host of relatives and friends.

Cares all past, Home at Last.

Safely Home

I am home in heaven, dear ones;
Oh so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty
In this everlasting light.

All the pain and grief is over,
Every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever,
Safely home in heaven at last.

Did you wonder how I so calmly
Trod the valley of the shade?
Oh, but Jesus' love illumined
Every dark and fearful glade.

And he came himself to meet me
In that way so hard to tread;
And with Jesus' arm to lean on,
Could I have one doubt or dread?

Then you must not grieve so sorely,
For I love you dearly still;
Try to look beyond earth's shadows,
Pray to trust our Father's will.

There is work still waiting for you,
So you must not idly stand;
Do it now, while life remains,
You shall rest in Jesus' land.

When that work is all completed,
He will gently call you home;
Oh, the rapture of that meeting,
And in heaven you will roam.
