

Lanett Palmer Kummer was born on July 30, 1950, to Albert J. Palmer and Blanche Ostler. Albert and Blanche had six children: Ronald, Dianne, Shirlene, Albert, Lanett, and Nadine, all of whom preceded Lanett in death.

She attended Timpanogos Elementary, Dixon Middle School, and Provo High School.

She married Glen Shaw on October 9, 1969. Together, they welcomed three children: their first boy, Jason, on August 8, 1970; a daughter, Kira, on January 4, 1972; and their youngest son, Justin, on September 28, 1976.

For several years, Lanett and Glen managed and lived at the Hillcrest Motel on State Street with their children. Lanett later began working at Signetics, and on March 1, 1979, she bought her first home, where she would reside for the rest of her life.

Tragedy struck on August 16, 1980, when Glen was hit by a car, leaving Lanett to raise their three young children on her own. Following a long stay in a care center, Glen passed away on September 7, 1990.

Earlier that year, on January 27, 1990, Lanett attended a church dance where she met Karl J. Kummer. They built their dream cabin together where they made many beautiful memories. They shared a beautiful marriage lasting 36 years.

When Signetics closed its facility on December 31, 1992, Lanett chose to go back to school, successfully earning her associate's degree from Utah Valley University. She went on to dedicate 20 years of service to Wasatch Mental Health, retiring on July 31, 2015.

Lanett was blessed with 24 grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren, with more on the way. She loved every one of them deeply and always made sure they knew it.

Lanett passed away on June 12, 2026, surrounded by her loving family. She will be dearly missed by all who knew and loved her.
