

Gone Fishin'

*I've finished life's chores assigned to me,
So put me on a boat headed out to sea.
Please send along my fishing pole
For I've been invited to the fishin' hole.
Where every day is a day to fish,
To fill your heart with every wish.
Don't worry, or feel sad for me,
I'm fishin' with the Master of the sea.
We will miss each other for awhile,
But you will come and bring your smile.
That won't be long you will see,
Till we're together you and me.
To all of those that think of me,
Be happy as I go out to sea.
If others wonder why I'm missin'
Just tell 'em I've gone fishin'

Aullnie Edward Colvin

Ed Colvin, 49, of Sedalia, MO, passed away on Thursday, December 19, 2024, at Research Medical Center in Kansas City, MO. Born on September 17, 1975, in Sedalia, Ed was the cherished son of Gene and Jo (Stout) Colvin, who reside in Sedalia.

Ed graduated from Smith-Cotton High School in 1993 and pursued further education at State Fair Community College. Following his studies, he joined his father in their family business, E.C. Construction, where he took pride in his work in construction and landscaping.

A lover of the outdoors, Ed found joy in fishing, hunting, and camping. He had a generous spirit and was always ready to lend a helping hand to those in need. He loved sharing stories, especially about fishing adventures with his daughters or the proud moments when his sons bagged impressive deer. A dedicated volunteer, Ed gave his time to the Sedalia Community Cafe and attended LifePointe Church, where he was baptized nine years ago by Pastor Rusty Thomas.

Ed's memory will live on through his five children: Andrew Colvin of Belton, MO; Audry Colvin, Molly Colvin, and Adam Colvin, all of Lee's Summit, MO; and Michael Burgess of Sedalia. He is also survived by his beloved Aunt Georgia Pedego, his best friend in life, along with numerous cousins and dear friends.

Ed was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents, Bud and Marty Stout and Geneva Ford Stout; his paternal grandparents, Aullnie and Martha Colvin; and his sister, Rebecca "Muffy" Colvin.

Ed's warmth, kindness, and unwavering love for his family and community will be deeply missed.
