Safely Home

I am home in heaven, dear ones; oh, so happy and so bright!
There is a perfect joy and beauty in the everlasting light.

All the pain and grief is over, every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever, safely home in heaven at last.

There is work still waiting for you, so you must not idly stand, do it now, while life remaineth– you shall rest in God's own land.

When that work is all completed, He will gently call you home;
oh, the rapture of that meeting oh, the joy to see you come!

Her Story

Sis. Catherine Rebecca Jamison Richardson, the daughter of the late Mr. Arthur Jamison and the late Mrs. Reaven Mazyck Jamison, was born on December 18, 1934, in Moncks Corner, SC. She was called to her eternal home to rest on Thursday, October 29, 2026. She was surrounded by love, in the comfort of her home with her daughter and son-in-law.

Catherine, affectionally known as "Sister", grew up in the Longridge Community of Moncks Corner, SC. She enjoyed fishing, baking, cooking and sewing. She was not an outside person, but stayed mostly inside the house. Since she did not like being outside, Catherine learned to cook at the age of five. She loved her family and would do whatever she could to help anyone in need of help.

Catherine accepted God as her personal Savior early in life and was faithful in her walk with the Lord. She received her education in the public schools of Berkeley County, SC. She was united in marriage to Isaac W. Richardson on April 10, 1955. This union was blessed with two daughters. She moved to Brooklyn, NY, where she resided for over 26 years. While living in Brooklyn, Catherine working in a sewing factory. When her family moved back to South Carolina in 1983, she worked as a housekeeper until she retired.

After moving back home, Catherine presence was known in Greater St. James AME Church, where she attended faithfully and served on the Women's Missionary Society and also as a member of the Culinary Ministry.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Isaac W. Richardson; parents, Arthur and Reaven Jamison, her daughter, Sylvia R. Morton; her siblings, Phillip Jamison, Sr., Ruth Ella Fuller, Deloris J. Limehouse, and Michael Jamison.

Those left to cherish fond memories are: her loving daughter, Izetta R. (Charles) Bowman, of Summerville, SC; son-in-law, Roscoe Morton, Sr., of Jacksonville, FL; four grandchildren, twelve great grandchildren, one sister-in-law, Jessie Bonaparte, and several nieces, nephew, other relatives and friends.
