UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN

*A beautiful life has come to rest,
God called you home; He knew what was best.
You gave your love, your strength, your care,
And left your memories everywhere.*

*A mother, a grandmother, a sister and friend,
Your love and your kindness had no end.
Through every season, through joy and pain,
You kept your faith and trusted His name.*

*You walked through life with wisdom and grace,
And left a special love no one can replace.
Your children and grandchildren will carry your name,
And the love you gave them will always remain.*

*Though our hearts are heavy and our eyes may cry,
We know that your spirit will never truly die.
For the love that you planted will continue to grow,
In every life that you touched before you had to go.*

*So rest now, Ethel, your journey is through,
Heaven has opened its beautiful doors for you.
No more pain, no more sorrow, no more tears,
Just everlasting peace through the coming years.*

*We will miss your voice, your smile, and your ways,
And treasure your memory for all of our days.
Until the day we meet on Heaven's shore,
We will love you, remember you, and miss you forevermore.*

My Father's house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am.

John 14:2-3

ETHEL CARLISLE

March 7, 1940 – August 6, 2026

Ethel B. Carlisle, a beloved wife, mother, sister, grandmother, and cherished family member, passed away on August 6, 2026, at the age of 86.

Ethel was born on March 7, 1940, to the late Alice and Coy McGlon. From an early age, Ethel displayed a remarkable intelligence and a natural ability to learn. Because of her academic ability, she advanced from the 4th grade directly to the 6th grade, a testament to her intelligence and determination. She later attended D.A. Smith High School.

At an early age, Ethel joined Union Grove Baptist Church, where she began her Christian journey and established a foundation of faith that remained an important part of her life.

Ethel will always be remembered for the love she gave to her family, her strength, her intelligence, her faith, and the many memories she created with those who were blessed to know her.

Ethel was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Ishmon Carlisle; her parents, Alice and Coy McGlon; her two daughters, Cynthia Carlisle and Debra Carlisle; and her siblings, Arthur McGlon, Marvin McGlon, T.C. McGlon, Hattie P. Tellis, Dorothy Barnes, and May Frances McGlon.

Those Left to Cherish Her Memory

Ethel leaves to cherish her memory her two sons, David (Renia) Barnes and Willie (Angela) Carlisle; and her daughter, Cheryl Carlisle.

She also leaves to cherish her memory her grandchildren: Willie F. Carlisle, Carlisa Carlisle, Commando (Veverlyn) Carlisle, Sabrina (Herbert) Phillips, Marcia Stanford, David Barnes, Adrian Grimes, Armanda Carlisle, Jamari Carlisle, and Imani Carlisle.

She is also survived by 24 great-grandchildren, all of whom will continue to carry her love, legacy, and memory forward.

She also leaves behind a special friend, Ms. Willa Dean Rumph, along with cherished family members, friends, and loved ones who will forever hold her memory close to their hearts.

Although her passing leaves a deep emptiness in the hearts of those who loved her, Ethel's memory will live on through the family and friends she leaves behind. The love she shared, the lessons she taught, and the memories she created will be treasured forever.

Today, we gather not only to mourn her passing, but to celebrate the beautiful life she lived and the love she gave so freely to those around her. Her presence may no longer be with us, but her memory will remain in our hearts forever.

Rest peacefully, Ethel. You will be deeply loved, forever missed, and never forgotten.

Gone But Never Forgotten

UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN

A beautiful life has come to rest,
God called you home; He knew what was best.
You gave your love, your strength, your care,
And left your memories everywhere.

A mother, a grandmother, a sister and friend,
Your love and your kindness had no end.
Through every season, through joy and pain,
You kept your faith and trusted His name.

You walked through life with wisdom and grace,
And left a special love no one can replace.
Your children and grandchildren will carry your name,
And the love you gave them will always remain.

Though our hearts are heavy and our eyes may cry,
We know that your spirit will never truly die.
For the love that you planted will continue to grow,
In every life that you touched before you had to go.

So rest now, Ethel, your journey is through,
Heaven has opened its beautiful doors for you.
No more pain, no more sorrow, no more tears,
Just everlasting peace through the coming years.

We will miss your voice, your smile, and your ways,
And treasure your memory for all of our days.
Until the day we meet on Heaven's shore,
We will love you, remember you, and miss you forevermore.
