Edward Murray Ballantyne

“Shut Out”

July 25, 1942 - June 8, 2024

Edward Murray Ballantyne, aka “Shut Out” passed away Saturday, June 8, 2024 at St. Anthony’s Hospital in The Pas, Manitoba, at the age of 81 years.

Shut Out was born on Saturday, July 25, 1942 in Moose Lake, MB to William and Louisa Ballantyne. Shut Out grew up in Moose Lake and he did some trapping and fishing with his dad when he was younger.

Shut Out earned his name playing hockey down at the lake with his nephews and their friends. Shut Out would be playing hockey and he was always the goalie. He would then go home and brag about how he was at blocking goals and that no one could get passed him. Hence the nickname Shut Out because it is a hockey term. He was the best goalie... at least he thought he was.

Shut Out eventually moved to The Pas. He lived at the Tamarack Motel for a period of his life. Unfortunately, Shut Out suffered a life altering assault later in life and was not able to continue living alone. He moved into St. Paul’s Personal Care Home and lived there until his passing.

When his nephew, Daniel, visited him Shut Out would often say, “All my siblings are gone just me now – nina mohci sokinyan (I’m the toughest)”. Shut Out would also say, “I’m waiting for Glen Constant to pick me up in his blue car and rent me his blue house because he has all my money.” He would mention this without fail every time Daniel went to visit him.
