Reflections of His Life

Ronnie Lee Cribb Jr. was the beloved son of Monica Gilmore and Ronnie Lee Cribb Sr., born January 17, 1992, and answered the call from labor to reward on June 22, 2026. Ronnie embraced the life he lived with love, strength, resilience, grace, and pride. As a child, Ronnie courageously battled cancer and won. He touched countless lives through his kindness, dedication, and strength. He was a hard worker who devoted over thirteen years as a manager at Waffle House, while also working at Teleperformance. Anyone who knew him recognized his strong work ethic, generous heart, and willingness to help others.

Ronnie will be fondly remembered by all those he graced with his presence. Finding the utmost joy in making others smile. Ronnie loved spending time with family and friends, whom he so dearly loved. Ronnie recently made the confession that he had accepted Christ as his Lord and savior. God's timing is perfect, and He knows how to prepare His angels as well as their loved ones for separation, for to live is Christ and to die is gain.

Ronnie was proceeded in death by his beloved maternal grandfather John "Dip" Gilmore, Father Ronnie Lee Cribb Sr., Paternal Grandparents Randy and Grace Cribb, Aunt Angela Marie Gilmore, and niece Faith Gilmore.

Ronnie's presence will be missed by many as he takes this journey without us. He leaves to cherish everlasting memories to comfort the heart. His loving mother, Monica Gilmore, of Columbia, SC, and siblings, Sheldon Gilmore, Javaughn McGill (DesNique), Malika Rogers, Tina Cribb, Lakeshia Cribb, Melissa Cribb, Taylor Cribb, Maternal Grandmother Eartha Mae Gilmore of Columbia, SC. Three Uncles, John Tyrone Gilmore, Pastor Randolph Cribb (Shirlean) and Wendell Brown, two aunts, Linda Edwards, and Donnella Jenkins and a host of Cousins, Nieces, nephews, and friends whose lives have been impacted by this life.

Committal, Prayer and Benediction

A Son's Homegoing

Mama, don't let your heart be troubled,

I know your tears are falling slow;

But I have heard the Savior calling,

And He said, "Son, it's time to go."

I fought my battles as a child,

And by God's grace I made it through;

He gave me strength for every valley,

And filled my days with love from you.

You taught me how to keep on standing,

To smile when roads were rough and long;

You prayed me through the midnight hours,

And raised me up in faith, made strong.

So when you hear the church bells ringing,

And songs of Zion fill the air;

Just know I'm resting with the Father,

Wrapped in His everlasting care.

Mama, I am not truly leaving,

Love does not end at heaven's door;

I'll live in every sweet remembrance,

Until we meet forevermore.

Hold close my name with peace and courage,

Let joy rise up beyond the pain;

For I have finished this life's journey,

And heaven has called me home again.
