

Hart's Mortuary at the Cupola

A Tribute to the Life of
Dr. Caye Dizon

A Distinguished Member of The Mercedes-Benz Club of America

Life should Not be a boring or uneventful Journey to the Pearly Gates that concludes with a calm and quiet arrival, Safe and sound in a pristine well-preserved body.
But rather to finish with a Grand Entrance,
skidding in sideways,
taking the Checkered Flag on squealing wheels with flat-spotted, thread-bare tires, curb-rash and brake dust,
driven hard and put up wet, aged with rust & full of dents, While laughing and shouting, Wow! What a Terrific Ride!

God Speed, Dear Friend, You've Won the Race.

Middle GA Chapter of MBCA

In Loving Memory
He truly lived. God's plan for all of us.
Our thoughts and prayers go out to his closest as God greets him with open arms.

Grief is a clumsy guest. It says the wrong thing, stays too long, spills wine on the carpet of the soul.
It comes because love was there first and love is the one guest

with no intention of leaving.
