

FOR NOW AND THROUGH ETERNITY

That day I saw him slip away,
How sad it was for me.
I then remembered God's promise.
••• together through eternity.
My hopes soared high •••
For then I did envision,
I'd stay behind and do my part,
And prepare for that heavenly mission.
And if I lived the best I could,
I too would be exalted.
And through the years beyond the veil,
Our hopes our dreams would be undaunted.

The earthly surroundings near me,
Remind me of yesterday.
The joys we shared together,
True love had come our way.

Before our prayers were uttered
God knew our every wish.
He knew our hearts desires,
And the joys that we would cherish.

I am never alone, nor will I be,
For his love is ever near.
In time we'll be together again,
In heaven the same as here.

Each day I pray for added strength,
God hears my humble plea.
His help ••• His love and guidance,
With these He blesses me.

The time grows ever shorter,
Each day does quickly flee.
Soon I'll reach that heavenly mansion,
Will God say? "Come unto me."
