CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF

August 10, 1952 ~ March 9, 2025

A FATHER'S LIGHT

I never thought I'd miss you in my young and forming years.
I always just dismissed you for the anger and the tears.

But now I think of both our paths
and moments strike me deep.
My age of reason reached but forever you're asleep.

In the ways I sing, I sometimes hear your voice burst from my lungs.
The way my patchy chin hair grows
I know that you'd look dumb.

And now a friend is what I want
when dwelling on this plight.
A few more years or maybe one to find my father's light.
