

Phenomenal Woman

Pretty women wonder where my secret lies.
I'm not cute or built to suit a fashion model's size
But when I start to tell them,
They think I'm telling lies.

I say, It's in the reach of my arms
The span of my hips, The stride of my step,
The curl of my lips. I'm a woman
Phenomenally. Phenomenal woman, That's me.

I walk into a room Just as cool as you please,
And to a man, The fellows stand or
Fall down on their knees. Then they swarm around me,
A hive of honey bees. I say,
It's the fire in my eyes, And the flash of my teeth,
The swing in my waist, And the joy in my feet.
I'm a woman Phenomenally. Phenomenal woman, That's me.

Men themselves have wondered What they see in me.
They try so much But they can't touch
My inner mystery. When I try to show them
They say they still can't see. I say,
It's in the arch of my back, The sun of my smile,
The ride of my breasts, The grace of my style. I'm a woman

Phenomenally. Phenomenal woman, That's me.

Now you understand Just why my head's not bowed.
I don't shout or jump about Or have to talk real loud.
When you see me passing It ought to make you proud.
I say, It's in the click of my heels,
The bend of my hair, the palm of my hand,
The need of my care, 'Cause I'm a woman
Phenomenally. Phenomenal woman, That's me.

Obituary

Elaine Berry was born on July 22, 1959, in Cincinnati, Ohio to the late Corrine Berry and Phillip Davis. She departed this life on March 21, 2021.

Elaine attended Hughes High School. She was a dedicated and devoted mother. She would often work two jobs to provide for her family. When she wasn't working and taking care of her family, she would spend time playing Bingo. She loved spending time with her family, especially her grandchildren.

Elaine was a model mother and grandmother. She kept a nice home where the doors were always opened wide to family and friends alike. She was an excellent cook. She was happiest when she was preparing a great meal for her family.

She leaves to cherish her memory, a son, Gary Demetrius Berry and daughter-in-law, Kimkisha A. Berry; daughter, Crystal Corrine Berry; three grandsons, Jaquan, Keyonte, and JaQuez; four granddaughters, Denay, Domanique, Savannah, and Corrine; one great-grandson and three great-granddaughters; five sisters, Pam, Judy, Binta, Ishia, and Debbie; two brothers, Aaron and Daryl. She leaves a host of nieces, nephews, family, and friends.
