

OBITUARY

Janet Golubinski, a beloved mother, grandmother, and dedicated charge nurse in the ICU at Cleburne Hospital, passed away peacefully on Sunday, February 16, 2025, in Crowley, Texas. Born on June 4, 1945, in Port Huron, Michigan.

Her career as a charge nurse demonstrated her unwavering commitment to healthcare and the well-being of her patients, embodying the values of compassion and professionalism. Outside of her demanding work in the ICU, Janet was also a talented pianist who shared her love for music by offering lessons and playing for the congregation at West Haven Baptist Church in Port Huron, Michigan.

Janet was deeply involved in her local community, serving selflessly in the food ministry at Heights Church in Cleburne, Texas where she attended and lending her talents to Operation Blessing, where she volunteered in the medical department of Johnson County. Her warm spirit and dedication to helping those in need made an indelible impact on many lives, and she will be remembered fondly by all who had the privilege of knowing her.

She is survived by her sons, Mark Golubinski and wife Melanie, and Jerry Golubinski and wife Joy Xiao-Golubinski; granddaughters Bridget Golubinski, Gloryanna Laman and husband Nicholas, Rebekah Golubinski, and Mercy Golubinski; grandsons Simon Golubinski and Joseph Golubinski.

Janet was preceded in death by her spouse Wayne Golubinski, her parents Roy and Esther Wissing, and her brother Joseph Wissing. The love she shared throughout her life and the memories she created with her family and friends will forever remain in our hearts.

In Loving Memory of Janet Golubinski

06.04.1945-02.16.2025

23rd Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths
of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy
shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.*
