

THE LIFE & LEGACY

Christopher Dana Harris was born on December 25, 1972 at the Columbia Hospital in Columbia, South Carolina . He was an only child, no siblings. He completed his High School Education in Richland County and his formal Education in a two year program at USC as a Computer Technician. Chris, as he was called was an avid professional basketball, football and baseball fan whether watching on TV or in person.

His last place of employment was with Amazon in West Columbia, South Carolina for approximately ten years as a shipping/receiving associate.

Chris was a very private and quiet person, choosing to spend most of his free time with his close family members. Chris frequently spent quality time with his mother Carolyn, meeting up at various eating establishments for lunch or dinner and texting every morning to say good morning with praying hands.

Chris is survived by his mother, Carolyn E. Harris Perry, stepfather Bennie E. Perry, two aunts, Peggy Picou of Springfield Gardens, New York Connie Harris of Columbia, South Carolina , one uncle, David Harris of Hopkins, South Carolina, one great aunt, Mattie Ferdinand of Queens, New York along with a host of cousins and friends who will all miss him dearly.

My Son

From a child
From a teenager
To an Adult
From a lost soul to a found soul
Because we live in the flesh
we can get it wrong
In life
But watching you as a Mother and proud to be your Mother
Far, far, from a perfect soul,
the hospital, the pain
your body, your mind and GOD said Chris I hear you
And I will have mercy on your Soul

Expression of Gratitude

The family of the late Christopher Harris wishes to express their gratitude for the outpouring of love, support, and sympathy during this difficult time. On behalf of Chris's Mother Carolyn; we extend appreciation and many thanks to the Doctors and Nurses at MUSC 5TH Tower and 4 East for the exceptional care of our beloved Christopher. Your comforting words, and presence have been a great source of strength for us. We are deeply thankful and may God bless each of you.
