Obituary

Erma Lee Daniels, beloved wife, mother, grandmother, sister, and friend, passed away peacefully on December 21, 2024, at the age of 73. She was born on July 22, 1951, to Starling Marby, Jr. and Emma L. Marby, who preceded her in death along with her brother, Ray Mabry.

From an early age, Erma embraced her faith and accepted Christ, a guiding light that shaped her life and the lives of those around her. She was a proud graduate of Withrow High School, where she cultivated a love for learning and formed lifelong friendships.

Erma was a vibrant member of the Cincinnati community, actively participating in various social clubs, including the 513 Club, Ohio Buckeye, Ohio Roadrunners, and the Night Riders. She cherished the moments spent traveling with friends and exploring new places, always bringing back stories and memories to share with her loved ones.

On April 1, 1969, Erma married the love of her life, Norman M. Daniels. Through this union, they welcomed two wonderful children, Dana S. Daniels and Norman Daniels Jr., who became the pride and joy of her life. Erma's family was her greatest treasure, and she adored hosting family get-togethers where laughter and love filled the air.

Professionally, Erma dedicated many years to her work at American Textiles, American Standard, and Kahn, where she was known for her strong work ethic and caring nature. Her colleagues admired her kindness and the warmth she brought to the workplace.

Erma leaves behind a legacy of love, faith, and resilience. She is survived by her devoted husband, Norman; her children, Dana, Norman, Jr., and Terence (Dorothy); her brother, Frank Mabry (Pam); her sister, Doris Philips (John); sister-in-law Cheryl (Columbus); very close friends, Norman and Lyna Ellis; and a host of relatives and friends who will carry her memory in their hearts.

Erma Lee Daniels will be deeply missed but forever remembered for her unwavering love, vibrant spirit, and the joy she brought to all who knew her.
