Obituary

Kevin Maurice Richardson (A.K.A. Love) was born January 10, 1961 in Cincinnati, Ohio by the late Margaret & John Richardson.

Kevin grew up in Kennedy Heights. He graduated from Woodward High School in 1979. Kevin was a very talented man. His first of many loves was his guitar. Kevin had a passion for Music, the Bengals, cooking, and fishing. He didn't play about the upkeep of his yard and keeping his car spotless and clean. Kevin loved family gatherings & spending time with his legacy meant the world to him. Kevin was the perfect host (which he got from his mother) if you walked through his door he had a drink and a plate of food for you.

Kevin leaves behind his wife Angela Richardson; three siblings (late) Stacy Richardson, Robert Richardson (Barbra), and Mark Milton; five children Andre Richardson/Tiffany, Krystal Jones (Yancey), Bryon Johnson, Kevin Dodd and Brent Anderson; thirteen grandchildren Brionna, Daylon, Alaysia, Nevaeh, Yancey, Mariah, Genesis, Alijah, Tion, Danay, Christian Armari, and Breonna, and one Great-granddaughter Kali Green with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and many close friends. Kevin was loved by many and will truly be missed.

DADDY,

You've never hurt me with this bad, but no matter where I go in life, you'll "ALWAYS" be my #1 man. I will always be your Baby Girl your Sweetie. Thanks for being my daddy, friend, homie, and now my Guardian Angel. To the world you may be just 1 person, but to me in my eyes you were the world.

I love you daddy don't never ever forget that!!

Love your Baby Girl

Daddy's Girl
