Funeral Service

Monday ~ August 11, 2025 ~ 11:00 am

Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary Greek Orthodox Church

518 N 5th Avenue ~ Pocatello, ID

Officiating ~ Father Constantine A. Zozos

The funeral service of the Eastern Orthodox Church consists of hymns, prayers, and reading from the Scriptures.   The service begins with chanting from Psalm 119, followed by several hymns, which express the mixed emotions of grief and consolation that come from the loss of a loved one, yet affirming our hope in God's promise of rest for the departed and eternal life.

In addition to the prayers and hymns, the funeral service also includes two scripture readings.   These passages reflect the Church's belief in the reality of Christ's death and the Resurrection and of the benefits that we derive from them, namely, the resurrection of our body on the last day, and the promise of incorruption and immortality.

God of spirits and of all humankind, as You trampled down death, overthrowing the Evil One and granting life to Your world, will You Lord, grant rest to Your servant, now asleep in death, in a place of light, a place of renewed life, a joyous place, shunned alike by pain and sorrow and sighing. Every sin committed, in word or deed, or thought, as our good and loving God forgive; for no one can live and not sin. Your righteousness endures forever, and Your Word is truth.

For You are the resurrection, the life and the repurpose of Your departed servant, O Christ or God, and to You we give the glory, as to Your Father who is from everlasting, and Your all-holy, good and lifegiving Spirit, now and always forever and ever.
