

To Those Whom I Love & Those Who Love Me

When I am gone, release me, let me go.
I have so many things to see and do,
You mustn't tie yourself to me with too many tears,
But be thankful we had so many good years.

I gave you my love, and you can only guess
How much you've given me in happiness.
I thank you for the love that you have shown,
But now it is time I traveled on alone.

So grieve for me a while, if grieve you must,
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It is only for a while that we must part,
So treasure the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away for life goes on.
And if you need me, call and I will come.

Though you can't see or touch me, I will be near.
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear,
All my love around you soft and clear.

And then, when you come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and a 'Welcome Home'.

If Roses Grow In Heaven

If Roses grow in Heaven
Lord, please pick a bunch for me.
Place them in my Mother's arms
and tell her they're from me.

Tell her that I love her and miss her,
and when she turns to smile,
place a kiss upon her cheek
and hold her for awhile.

Because remembering her is easy,
I do it every day,
but there's an ache within my heart
that will never go away.

Obituary

La'Debra "Deb" Sherman was born on July 31, 1993 in Cincinnati, Ohio to the parents of Latasha Sherman and Charles Smith. She attended Hoffman and Parham Elementary. She attended Hughes Center, but went on to graduate from Job corps. La'Debra also studied a couple years of nursing also earning her STNA license.

Growing up 'Deb' was always responsible, often babysitting little cousins and friends. "Deb" had her first child, becoming a mother at the age of 15. She worked hard and diligently to beat all those negative statistics about teen moms. From that very moment, she became a mom her kids were her world and she worked hard to make sure they had everything they could desire.

Traveling and making memories with her kids was her most favorite things to do.

La'Debra had an aura and beauty that lit up the room whenever she would walk in. Often described her as "the life of the party", but also that kind-hearted, dependable person that anyone she loved could call her for anything. "Deb" passed away unexpectedly on Saturday, January 7, 2023. Knowing that she is loved dearly.

La'Debra was preceded in death by her mom: Latasha Sherman, father: Charles Smith, two of her grandparents: Deborah Smith Robert Sherman, two uncles: Rashawn Million and Brandon Bennett, aunt: Tracie Smith, and a host of cousins, great uncles, and aunts.

LaDebra leaves behind to cherish her memory her three children De'Montae Sherman, Demyrah Williams, and Chavez Walker Jr., brother: Andre Sherman, two sisters: Mary Sherman and Jalisa Gray, Five nieces and nephews: Amare Jackson, Ariyae Jackson, Andre Sherman Jr. D'Aylah Holley and Dominique Hunter, grandmother: Mary Corley (Price), aunts, uncles cousins, and other loving friends.

"Deb" truly left a strain on everyone's heart she has come across. She'll be missed by so many.
