When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not here to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me

I wish you wouldn't cry
The way you did today
While thinking of the many things
We didn't get to say

I know how much you love me
As much as I love you
Each time that you think of me
I know you'll miss me too

When tomorrow starts without me
Please try to understand
That an angel came and called my name
And took me by the hand

The angel said my place was ready
In Heaven far above
And That I would have to leave behind
All those I dearly love

So when tomorrow starts without me
Do not think we're apart
For every time you think of me
Remember I'm right here in your heart.

Her Story

We will sorrowfully miss our beloved wife and mother. Elaine was born in Philadelphia on December 22, 1935. She was the first daughter of the late Thomas and Myrtle Moore. Elaine attended Philadelphia public schools elementary through senior high school. She also graduated from Temple University earning a degree in Early Childhood Education.

Elaine has always been a child advocate and a dedicated worker with children. She ran a home daycare for several years before working at Children's Village. She began there doing her student practicum under the Child Care Program at Temple University and was eventually hired. Over her 6+ years at Children's Village, she held several positions, from substitute teacher to lead teacher. She has received several awards in her career including Mother of the Year and positive recognitions as a good role model to children and young adults. She very seldom said "No" to anyone who needed her services. Elaine was a mother who gave of her time, energy and love to her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Elaine also had a passion for decorating and fashion. Her home was filled with antiques, which she collected from Dawn and Robert's antique business at a family discount. It was always in immaculate order. She was known for her style, earning the nickname "Jazzy Lady." Every Saturday, she loved visiting Macy's in Willow Grove, where the saleswomen knew her well. One neighbor even remarked that Ms. Jones could often be found outside, caring for her lawn and patio, dressed in nice clothes and pearls—always embodying the "Jazzy Lady" persona. Additionally, Elaine had a love for brooch designing, and you could always find her wearing one of her own creations.

Her devotion, love, and faithfulness to her husband made their 65-year marriage truly beautiful. Elaine leaves behind her husband Harold, their children — Pamela (Clayton - spouse), Dawn (Robert - spouse), Glenn (Nicole - spouse), and Marc (Anita - spouse), her grandchildren—Brandon (Gloria - spouse), Tiffany, Lauren, Chelsea (Tyree - spouse), Janelle, Myles, Makai and her great-grandchildren, Brandon Jr., Chase, and Julian. She also leaves to mourn her brother, Kenneth Moore and sister Kathryn Lecoin and a host of nieces, nephews and lifelong friends. They can all find comfort in knowing that she is now at peace with the Lord.

Lovingly Submitted, The Family
