Obituary

Henry Gene Weathers, age 59, entered eternal rest on Saturday morning, September 26, 2026. He was born on April 14, 1967, in Meriwether County, Georgia. He was the son of the late Eddie Lee Weathers and Ira Lizzie Weathers.

Henry attended Luthersville Elementary School and Greenville High School through the 10th grade. He then found a job at the cotton mill in Peachtree City, Georgia. Henry also joined Messiah Miracle Worship Center on September 4, 2025, where he gave his life to Christ and accepted him as his lord and personal Saviour. He loved praising God and listening to his music and God's word.

Henry was joined in holy matrimony to Diann Gates for seven years, with whom he built a life of love and cherished memories. Henry was a proud Father of one son, Edward Weathers.

Henry was preceded in death by his father, Eddie Lee Weathers; his brother, Eddie Lewis Weathers; and sister, Stephanie Renae Weathers; two grandmothers, Louvenia Weathers and Lottie Fae Dunlap; two grandfathers, Luther Gates of Ohio and Bill Dunlap of East Point, Georgia.

He leaves to treasure his legacy, his mother, Ira Lizzie Weathers; sister, Leasie (Kennie) Foster of Greenville, Georgia; and brother, John Lee (Angel) Weathers.

His memory will be cherished by his son, Edward Eugene (Errin) Weathers; three grandkids, Kendravirus Weathers, Kamryn Weathers, and Karston (KJ) Weathers, all of Newnan, Georgia; two nephews, Darius (Courtney) Bussey and Onaji (Taccola) Weathers; nieces, Rosalyn and Latoya Weathers, Miyonka Weathers, Zynetta Rogers, Edward Bernard Weathers, Tori Starr, Andelyn Weathers, and Regina Rainy, all of Atlanta, Georgia; and a host of other great-nieces and nephews; a special friend like another mother, Brenda Bussey; a host of aunts: Brenda and Cleopal Dunlap of East Point, Georgia, Maggie Strickland of Blackjack, Senoia, Georgia, Eula Kate Johnson of Hogansville, Georgia, Ollie Mae Hine, Christine Jones, Phyllis Ann Henderson, Evelyn Baker, all of North Carolina, and Catherine Wade of Statesboro, Georgia; one uncle, Oliver Paul Weathers of North Carolina; and a host of other aunts and uncles on his mother's side.

Henry loved to clean up, cook, wash cars, clean up yards, and cut grass; he also loved to walk. Henry would help wherever he could be of help. He was a friendly person, and he loved to have fun. In Henry's last days in good health, he loved talking about the Lord, and letting people know how good God is.
