

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took His hand when I heard Him call
And turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, or love, or work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that peace at close of day.
And if my parting left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes these things I too, will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you sunshine for tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savoured much
Good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it with undue grief
Lift up your heart and share with me
God wants me now, He set me free.

Many organizations benefited from her dedication including the Royal Canadian Legion, Senior Centre President, Golf Course, Curling Club, Greenstone, Minor hockey and town council for many years.

Grace's life was mostly about her family and friends. She enjoyed card games, golfing, curling, pontooning, reading and fishing. She enjoyed the simple pleasures in life, and all the comradery of life in a close knit northern community. While her kids were growing up, you were sure to find Grace at the rink watching them play hockey or figure skate. Some would say it was her second home. She carried this tradition on with her grandchildren, watching and cheering at their sporting events.
