23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall
follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Obituary

James B. Hargrove

March 16, 1953- September 30, 2026.

Affectionately known as "Home Team", James B. Hargrove was born on March 16, 1953, in Robinsonville, Mississippi, to the late Jarmon Hargrove II and Annie Mae Hargrove. Reared in Cincinnati, Ohio, James was baptized at an early age and graduated from Withrow High School. He was married and blessed with four children whom he loved dearly.

James was a kindhearted, outgoing, and funny man who never met a stranger. Affectionately known as "Home Team", a title that he proudly bestowed on many others, he had a special way of making everyone feel welcomed and like family. James had a unique nickname for almost everyone that he encountered. His unique sense of humor, bright personality, and wise words could light up any room, leaving lasting impressions through stories, jokes, and thoughtful advice.

A true jack of all trades, James possessed a natural talent for carpentry and mechanics. He had a gift for working with his hands-fixing, building, and maintaining cars with skill, patience, and generosity. Always eager to lend a helping hand, James was known for assisting countless family members move into their homes over the years and sharing his vast knowledge with anyone who needed it.

James was preceded in death by his parents, Jarmon Hargrove II and Annie Mae Hargrove; brothers, Jerry Hargrove, Jarmon Hargrove III, Wallace Hargrove, Dexter Hargrove, and Al Hargrove; and his sister, Susie B. Hargrove.

He leaves to cherish his memory: children: James "Jimmy-Jack" B. Hargrove Jr. (Charlonne), Vickie Walker (Cincinnati, OH), Tracey Hargrove, and Wallace "Buddy" Hargrove (Detroit, MI): 14 grandchildren, 12 great-grandchildren. siblings: Beatrice Clark (Peoria, IL), Lillie Sims (the late Jerry), JD Hargrove (the late Debbie), and Jarlene Hargrove (all of Cincinnati, OH). A host of nieces, nephews, extended family members, and dear friends.

Father, Grandfather, Great-Grandfather, Brother, Uncle, Cousin, and Friend…Today we celebrate your life, James. Your laughter, wisdom, kindness, and unforgettable "Home Team" spirit touched so many lives. We will carry your love, laughter, and legacy with us always.

2 Timothy 4:7-8

"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day–and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing."
