

Acknowledgement

The family of Angelette Louise Kennedy extends our deepest gratitude for the outpouring of love, support, and kindness shown to us during this difficult time. Your prayers, comforting words, and thoughtful gestures have brought us strength and peace when we needed it most.

We would like to offer special thanks to Walker Funeral Home for your care and compassion. We are especially thankful to those who traveled, prepared meals, sent flowers, or offered helping hands in so many meaningful ways.

Although our hearts are heavy, we find comfort in knowing how deeply Angelette was loved and how fondly they will be remembered. May God bless each of you for your kindness and generosity.

With sincere appreciation,

The Kennedy Family

A Garden of Memories

In the garden of life, where flowers bloom,
There lived a soul who lit up every room.
Elaine Robinson, with a heart so pure,
Her love and kindness forever endure.

With gentle hands, she tended her flowers,
In her presence, time lost its hours.
Her laughter, a melody, light and sweet,
In her embrace, life felt complete.

Through every season, she gave her all,
In summer's warmth and autumn's call.
With winter's chill and spring's rebirth,
Elaine found beauty in the earth.

Her eyes sparkled with a timeless grace,
A loving smile that brightened every face.
In every moment, both big and small,
Elaine's spirit touched us all.

Now she rests where the lilies grow,
In a place where love's rivers flow.
Her legacy, like a rose, will bloom,
Eternal joy in nature's room.

Though we miss her gentle touch,
Her memory will comfort us much.
Elaine Robinson, forever dear,
In our hearts, you're always near.

Celebrating

THE LIFE & LEGACY

Angelette Louise Kennedy was born on March 2, 1956 in Cincinnati, Ohio. She was an amazing mother, daughter, grandmother, niece and friend to many. Known as lovely as Angie, she was truly one of a kind—beautiful, powerful, strong, full of courage and life. Angie was a devoted employee and supervisor at the University of Cincinnati Medical Center and College, where she dedicated nearly 20 years of service. She lived by the mantra "Treat people how you want to be treated," and embodied those words every day of her life.

Cherished Relationships

Angelette leaves behind a family filled with love, including her children, Teisha Kennedy and Keyonate Kennedy, and her beloved grandchildren Marquez Hill, Markeal Kennedy, Ireisha Carter, Markayla Kennedy and Aveyeon Kennedy. She was also blessed with great-grandchildren Aubree Hill and Milani Kennedy. Angie is survived by her siblings, Louis Cameron Jr. and Barbara Ann Cameron, along with a host of loving nieces, nephews, cousins and extended family.

She was preceded in death by her daughter Myeisha Kennedy; her sister Alice Walton; her brother Jimmy Cameron; her nephew Ralph Walton Jr; her father Louis Cameron Sr; and her mother Alice Cameron-- all of whom she loved deeply. Angie is now peacefully reunited in heaven with the loved ones who passed before her.

To know Angelette was truly to love her. She was intelligent, kind, compassionate, and giving. Whenever someone was in need, Angie was always willing to lend a helping hand. She lived openly and fearlessly, and being in her presence was a true blessing. Like a sparrow soaring through the sky, she was full of life and love. Though her physical presence is no longer with us, the impact she made on so many lives will continue to grow stronger with each passing day.

FOREVER IN OUR

Hearts

You left this world before we knew,
The heavens called and skies turned blue.
Your journey ended, peace was near,
Yet in our hearts, you're ever dear.

We see your smile in morning rays,
We hear your voice in quiet ways.
The world feels still without your light,
But your love remains, forever bright.

You showed us grace in all you gave,
In every hug, in how you'd brave.
A heart so pure, a soul so kind,
A love like yours is hard to find.

Though we're apart, you're not far gone,
Your memory lives, your spirit strong.
You touched our lives in countless ways—
A legacy that never fades.

Now rest in peace, in skies above,
Your soul set free, wrapped up in love.
And when a soft wind brushes by,
We'll feel you near, and not ask why.

A LIFE WELL LIVED

A LEGACY Remembered
