

The 23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;

Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Patsy Ruth Orr, a beloved mother, grandmother, and friend, passed away peacefully on February 8, 2026, at the age of 90. Born on November 3, 1935, in Wrensboro, Texas, she lived a life enriched by love, laughter, and cherished connections.

Married on March 6, 1956, to her devoted husband Kenneth Orr, she embraced the joys of family and community with open arms. Together, they fostered a home filled with warmth and kindness, raising five children: Charles, Kenneth, II, Deborah, Patressa and Regenia. Patsy found immense joy in the company of her grandchildren, creating lasting memories with Melissa, Kelly, Stephen, Jessica, Kenneth, Juanita, Christina, Christopher, Joshua, Sarah, Michael, Stephanie, and Jimmy. As a proud great-grandmother, she relished every moment with Nathaniel, Aiden, Bella, Jackson, Colbie, Natalie, Lynleigh, Jordan, Ava, Delilah, Koler, Emilia, and Raylen, leaving a legacy of love that will endure through generations.

Patsy's passion for life was evident. Her happiest moments were being a devoted wife to her husband, and being part of the Navy family, raising her 5 children. Teaching them the importance of honesty, compassion, and the true value of family. She enjoyed traveling, playing games, She enjoyed music, she was artistic (she wrote poems, painted, crocheted), having her family close by, and embracing the beauty of the outdoors.

Patsy Ruth Orr will be deeply missed by all who knew her. Her spirit continues to shine through the hearts of her family and friends, reminding us all to cherish the love we share and the moments we create. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in her memory to a charity of choice.

Patsy was preceded in death by: her parents, siblings, her husband Kenneth Orr, and her two daughters Deborah Woodruff, Patressa McCluskey and her granddaughter Lynn Orr.
