

Born on July 30, 1959, in San Fernando, Trinidad, Larry later made his home in Owings Mills, Maryland, where he built a life centered on faith, family, and love.

Larry was a devoted son, husband, father, grandfather, brother, and friend whose life reflected compassion, generosity, and an unwavering trust in God. His faith was the foundation of his life, and he had a remarkable gift for sharing God's Word with others. Whether through encouragement, prayer, or conversation, Larry's desire was always to uplift those around him and point them toward hope in Christ.

Growing up in San Fernando, Trinidad, Larry attended San Fernando Boys R.C. School, Pleasantville Junior Secondary School, and Pleasantville Senior Comprehensive School. Throughout his life, he enjoyed playing football (soccer), cricket, and running. He also loved to travel, creating cherished memories on family vacations that brought everyone together.

If there was one thing everyone knew about Larry, it was his love for good food—especially the delicious meals lovingly prepared by his wife, Patricia. He always looked forward to enjoying her cooking, and no dessert made him happier than a slice of traditional Trinidadian black cake. Those simple moments around the table were among the many ways he celebrated life and the people he loved.

Above all else, Larry's greatest joy was his family. He loved his children wholeheartedly and took great pride in watching them grow. His grandchildren brought endless smiles to his face, and he treasured every opportunity to spend time with them. His kindness, wisdom, humor, and steadfast love will remain with them forever.

Although our hearts are heavy with grief, we rejoice in knowing that Larry's faith carried him home to be with the Lord he faithfully served. His legacy of love, devotion to family, and commitment to sharing God's Word will continue to inspire all who had the privilege of knowing him.

Larry will be deeply missed, forever remembered, and always loved. His memory will live on in the hearts of his family, friends, and all whose lives he touched.
