

IN Love AND Loss

*The sky weeps in shades of purple hue,
A love so deep, forever true.
Though silence fills the space between,
Her light still shines soft, serene.*

*Seventeen years, a precious glow,
A spirit too bright to ever go.
She dances now in whispered air,
Her love still lingers everywhere.*

*In every violet bloom you see,
In every wind that sets you free,
She walks beside you, hand in hand,
A gentle touch, a love that stands.*

*Though grief may weigh upon your chest,
Her soul is light, her heart at rest.
And when you dream, just look above
She sends you strength, she sends you love.*

Love,
Auntie Makayla

THE FAMILY'S MESSAGE OF GRATITUDE

*The Family of Tatiyana Gushiniere-Richardson, Our
"Amazing Grace" wishes to express their deepest appreciation and sincere gratitude to those who have offered their prayers, support, and well wishes during our time of bereavement.
Thank you for your love and strength which, along with the strength of God, has helped to sustain us through our sorrow.*

May God continue to bless you!

*We take comfort in 1 Corinthians 2:9 ...
"Eye has not seen, nor ear heard, nor have entered into the heart of man, the things which God has prepared for those who love Him."*

LIFE STORY

Tatiana Grace Gushiniere-Richardson
August 20, 2007 – March 7, 2025

“I tell you the truth, a time is coming and has now come when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God and those who hear will live.” ~John 5:25

On August 20, 2007, Tatiana Grace Gushiniere-Richardson, the much-loved daughter of Dominique Moore and Goldie Gushiniere, came into the world on a mission, a special assignment by God. She was to use her blessings and her gifts for the greater good and return all glory to God, the giver of all things. Years later, she relocated with her mom and siblings from Mobile, Alabama, and became residents of Tallahassee, Florida.

Tatiana believed that God has a promise of a future filled with hope, and that her future was in His hands. She knew that path would not always be easy, but that He would always guide her on a personal journey rooted in her personal relationship with Jesus Christ, her Savior. Following her baptism, she became an active member of her church. Because of her enthusiastic faith and her welcoming spirit, she was honored to teach a Sunday School class where she felt blessed by the Lord to be a blessing to others in return.

Tatiana was self-confident, at peace, and resistant to peer pressure. She was a good student academically, actively involved in extracurricular activities, and a role model for others. Following her own plan of action, she challenged herself to forego her track season and 2025 James S. Rickards High School graduation with her classmates by obtaining her GED on her first attempt. She was honored to represent as the queen of “Girls to Diva,” a local non-profit organization.

A people person, Tatiana was blessed with enthusiasm and initiative. Because of her own personal agenda, she became gainfully employed as soon as she was eligible, beginning with Publix. She also had a welcoming presence at Wal-Mart, Forever 21, Urban Air, and Zaxby’s. A personal challenge for herself was to be loyal, to be motivated, and to always give her best effort with a winning attitude.

For 15 years Tatiana and her sisters recognized how tirelessly their mom worked as the sole provider, and that she made sacrifices out of her unconditional love for them. Consequently, Tatiana never missed an opportunity to show her love or state her heartfelt appreciation for her mom, for she was determined to support her as well as her sisters in every way possible. As a family unit, they embraced each other’s achievements, successes, and even encouraged improvements for their missed opportunities. She had a close bond with Mya, helped take care of her nephew, and assisted with any other household responsibilities that were needed.

Tatiana Grace Gushiniere-Richardson’s life, though brief, was a blessing to those who were touched by her existence. The indelible mark she left on their hearts far exceeds the amount of time she lived. Her family and community have suffered a great loss; however, only God can provide answers for the heartache that otherwise much prayer and time will heal. On Friday, March 7, 2025, Tatiana completed her mission on earth and transitioned from this earthly life to receive eternal rest with Him in Paradise.

The memory of Tatiana Grace Gushiniere-Richardson will forever remain in her loved ones’ hearts. She leaves behind a legacy of love, life, loyalty, and faithfulness that will continue to inspire everyone. While they grieve in her passing, they also celebrate her life and her profound influence on them and the community. Among those impacted are her mother: Dominique Moore of Tallahassee, FL; father: Goldie Gushiniere of Mobile, AL; sisters: Gwindilyn Richardson, Daija Welch, and Tamyah Richardson, all of Tallahassee, FL and Anaya Gushiniere and Anita Gushiniere, both of Mobile, AL; maternal grandmother: Julia Shaw of Mobile AL; aunts: Makayla, Littida, Elaunda, Tiffany, Oslanda, and Stephanie; uncle: Joneil; niece and nephew: Syn’phonie Welch and Kai Richardson, both of Tallahassee, FL; god father: Elder Terry (Madria) Price of Tallahassee, FL; best friend: Niyana Cook; close friends: MaNyah Ghant, and Eryn Scott; fur baby: Lucy; along with many other sorrowing relatives, comforting friends, consoling schoolmates, caring coworkers, and all others whose lives were positively impacted by her life.

“He gives strength to the weary and increases the power of the weak. Even youths grow tired and weary, and young men stumble and fall; but those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint.”

– Isaiah 40:29-31
