

CELEBRATION OF LIFE
FOR

Angela
MICHELLE PARKS

My Loving Wife
Still I hear those voices, From a time so long ago.
I see so many faces, But not the one I love and know.
I walk the same old streets, Hear your footsteps just the same.
How I'd love to wake tomorrow, And walk with you once again.
Just to look into your eyes, And tell you about my day.
It's those little things I miss, Since the day you went away.
I now pray to God in heaven, To keep you in his care,
To comfort you and heal this hurt, Until the day I meet you there.

Your loving Husband Stenson Parks

Life Profile

Mrs. Angela Michelle Skinner Parks born on June 6, 1963 to Ms. Laura Skinner and the late Mr. John Skinner in Taylors SC. She was educated in the Greenville county school system. She married Mr. Stenson Howard Parks and was a member of the Bountiful Blessings Church in Roebuck, SC.

She had a beautiful voice and lent her talents to the One Accord Gospel Singers. Mrs. Parks was also a member of the Lovers for Christ Traveling Prison Ministry.

Angela had exceptional skills in catering and decorating. She was awarded the Inside Connection Award.

Those left to cherish her lasting and loving memories are her mother, Ms. Laura Skinner; husband, Mr. Stenson Howard Parks of Spartanburg SC; one son, Jonathan Maurice (Telena) Skinner of Spartanburg, SC; one daughter, Lakesha Nechelle Skinner of Simpsonville, SC; one brother, Gerald Skinner of Taylors, SC; one sister, Regina Skinner of Taylors, SC; six grandchildren, one great-grandchild and a host of nieces, nephew, cousins and other loving family and friends.

On Saturday May 8, 2021, she sang her last song on this side and became a member of the heavenly choir where she can sing God’s praises forevermore.

Proverbs 31:10-23

Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies.

The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her,

so that he shall have no need of spoil.

She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life.

She seeketh wool, and flax, and worketh willingly with her hands.

She is like the merchants’ ships; she bringeth her food from afar.

She riseth also while it is yet night, and giveth meat to her household, and a portion to her maidens.

She considereth a field, and buyeth it:

with the fruit of her hands she planteth a vineyard.

She girdeth her loins with strength, and strengtheneth her arms.

She perceiveth that her merchandise is good: her candle goeth not out by night.

She layeth her hands to the spindle, and her hands hold the distaff.

She stretcheth out her hand to the poor;

yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy.

She is not afraid of the snow for her household:

for all her household are clothed with scarlet.

She maketh herself coverings of tapestry; her clothing is silk and purple.

Her husband is known in the gates, when he sitteth among the elders of the land.
