

In Appreciation

Jesus promised us they who mourned would be comforted. During our hours of bereavement this promise has been fulfilled by you, our kind and loving "Friends and Neighbors." Thank you each for coming to help us bear our grief. Your calls, visits, prayers, kindness in acts and deeds during the passing of our loved one shall never be forgotten. May God bless and keep each of you.

The Obituary

Martha Ann Jackson was born on September 23, 1952, in Cordele, Georgia, to her loving parents John Jackson, Sr. and Clara Mae Adams Jackson. From a young age, Martha was spirited and full of life, with a love for dancing that was only matched by her talent for lively conversation, often talking plenty of "trash" in good humor.

Martha accepted Christ and united with the Beulahland Baptist Church in Cordele, Georgia, where she nurtured her faith and built lasting relationships within her community. Her life was a testament to her strong faith, love for family, and her vibrant personality.

Martha Ann Jackson peacefully passed away on June 27, 2026, having been preceded in death by her beloved parents. She leaves behind a legacy of love and cherished memories with her family and friends. Her spirit and legacy will continue to inspire and bring joy to all who knew her.

Martha's memory lives on through her surviving family members: her daughter, Michelle Daniels of Cordele, Georgia; her bonus daughter, April Glenn of Cordele, Georgia; her grandchildren: Teona Moses of Jacksonville, Florida, Demario Daniels of Cordele, Georgia, and Shatreka Daniels of Cordele, Georgia; nine great grandchildren; her sisters, Brenda Edwards (Walter) of Cordele, Georgia and Donna Kearse of Coco, Florida; her brothers, William Jackson (Donna) of New Orleans, Louisiana, Kennith Jackson of Cordele, Georgia, and Carl Jackson (Lula Mae) of Cordele, Georgia; her son-in-law, Lonnie Coleman of Cordele, Georgia; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and many sorrowing friends.

*Tho the clouds may hover o'er us.
There's a bright and golden ray
It's the promise that in Heaven
God shall wipe all tears away.
No more sorrow, no more weeping.
Peace and joy shall hold full sway
For beside life's crystal river
God shall wipe all tears away.
Every care will be forgotten
All our burdens we shed lay,
Safe within the walls of Jasper
God shall wipe all tears away.
Oh the joy of meeting Jesus
Mortal tongue can not portray
But we know when we behold Him
God shall wipe all tears away.*
