Obituary

John C. Mills, son of the late Classy Roundtree and Central Mills was born on May 3rd, 1929, in Hartsville South Carolina. He departed his life on August 28th, 2023, after battling lengthy illnesses.

John C. Mills received his education in Lee County school systems. He had to leave school at an early age to work. John moved to Baltimore Md at the age of 19. In Baltimore is where he met the love of his life Janie M. Mills who received her wings in August 2010. John worked at Bethlehem Steel Corp and was a loyal employee until he retired.

John enjoyed attending church services where he was a long-time member of Fountain Baptist church for over 60 years. Fishing and watching wrestling were a couple of his hobbies. Often you could find him at Reisterstown plaza mingling with people and telling old stories. He made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone.

John had three children, a devoted daughter Angela L. Mills who took care of him until the day of his passing and Christian Hooks, who resides in Charlotte NC. His son John Mills Jr. (John Boy) preceded him in death in 1997. He leaves to mourn five grand kids, Tyrone Tillman, Theresa Thomas, Tweneytta Harvey and Monterial Mills all of Baltimore and Lindzee Cook of PA. Ten great grand kids and many great great grands. A host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends

Gone Fishing

If someone should ask for me,
tell 'em heaven is where I'll be.
I've finished all my life's chores,
and now I fish on heaven's shores.

The view is grand and the fishing's great,
but I yearn for you as I wait.
I'll save a spot on the river's bend,
for all those I call family and friend.

But for now, sail out to sea
and make a cast in memory,
to all the good times that you had,
with me- your friend, your grandpa...your dad.

And if the fish no longer bite
or seem no longer worth the fight,
because it's me that you are missin',
don't worry - be glad - I've only gone fishin'.
