We deeply appreciate your kind expression of sympathy in our time of great sorrow. There are really no words to express our heartfelt thanks for the love and support you have extended towards our family during this time of sadness.

The Family of Tyisha M. Gibson

I love you so much and missed you all my life. I wish I could go back in time and change a lot of things—especially between us. We were so close, then we just grew apart, and now we're even further apart. I'm so mad you weren't there for my firsts—my first boyfriend, first kiss, first heartbreak—and even when I have my first child, you won't be here.

You were a smart and strong woman who didn't have the support you needed until it was too late. You probably felt like a burden or not good enough, and I'm sorry you couldn't get the comfort you needed. Because I do love you. I just wanted you to do better because I knew you could do better.

All the good memories are from my childhood, and that's because of you—my mother. And I hold those memories in my heart with you. We can catch up and laugh all about it, till we meet again.

"I love you, Mama—forever and always."

Tyisha Gibson was born in Kansas City, Missouri, on October 10, 1983. She was the oldest of two children born to the union of Dorothy Gibson and Raymond Grayson / Joseph Taylor.

Tyisha graduated from Southeast High School in 2001. She went on to earn her CNA license and worked as a Pharmacy Technician.

Tyisha's hobbies included illustrating nature and dancing. She was an excellent performer at the Alvin Ailey Summer Academy. To be near her was to feel understood without needing to explain. She had a gift for seeing people not just as they were, but as who they were trying to become.

She leaves to cherish her memory her children Allyssia Dennis, Virgil Dennis Jr., and Skillar Prince Jr., and her grandson Emir Dennis. She is also survived by her nephews Ronnell Ivy Jr. and Dezmahn Jones; cousins LaToya Edwards, Raisha Gibson, and Jeremy Williams; and her great-aunt, Billy Joe. She will also be remembered by a host of great cousins, including LaTrell Edwards.

Tyisha is lovingly remembered by her close friends Kim, Nicole, and Tiffany. She also leaves behind her sister, Taneisha Taylor of Kansas City, Missouri, and her aunt Patricia Gibson. Other surviving family members include her aunts DD, TT, and Corine, and her uncles Daniel Gibson, Michael Gibson, Tony Gibson, Joe, Michael Grayson, Darnell Grayson, and Raford Grayson, and a host of cousins and friends.

Tyisha was preceded in death by Elnories Edward, Betty Edward, Mary Larrieux, and Raymond Grayson Sr.
