IN LOVING MEMORY

Hellena Castel

October 3, 1929-June 26, 2025

Hellena was born Thursday, October 3, 1929, on the trapline at Spruce Point, Kississing Lake, Manitoba. As a child, Hellena (Lena) Charlette Castel lived her early years in Sherridon, Manitoba. Where she met her husband Peter Castel and got married at Sherridon. They later moved to Pukatawagan where she raised her family, although they moved to many different places.

Hellena (Lena) was a guiding star to her children, she taught many different life long lessons to her family and friends. She was very kind hearted and generous to everyone she met, and has raised numerous children who she loved very much.

Hellena was very creative in her beadwork and crafts. She was a very inspirational women towards everyone she met. She would sit long hours with family and friends as she would share stories about family who have passed on and always had fresh bannock in her kitchen to share with others that came by her place to visit.

Mom, if we could give you the world we would because that is exactly what you gave us your world, your love, your everything, You have been our biggest protector, our greatest supporter and the one person who has never given up on your children even when we made mistakes you loved us through it all. We see your sacrifices, your strength, your endless love. We love you more than words can ever be expressed.

Hellena passed away Thursday, June 26, 2025 at the West-Man Care Home, Virden, Manitoba, at the age of 95 years, her other stay was In Flin Flon Manitoba Care Home.
