Raymond Walter Kohn

April 21, 1937– July 31, 2021

Raymond Walter Kohn was born April 21, 1937 in Fort a la Corne, Saskatchewan to Nick and Mollie Kohn. He had two sisters, Margaret and MaryAnne. The family moved to Nipawin, Saskatchewan where Ray received his schooling. Ray assisted his dad on the farm while employed at Ostberg equipment garage. Ray was united in marriage to Isabelle Olson on July 17, 1961 at the Nipawin Apostolic Church. They were blessed with three sons, Greg and Rob were born in Nipawin. They later moved to The Pas, Manitoba where their third son Dale was born. In The Pas Ray was first employed at Campbell heating. He later worked at the pulp and paper mill. After 6 years of working at the mill Ray decided to start his own business “Ray’s Heating”, retiring in 2012. He was a member of Living Water Apostolic Fellowship. He enjoyed his work and appreciated a cup of coffee with his customers who became his life long friends. He was a quiet, hard working man who was always content with staying out of the limelight.

Sadly he passed away July 31, 2021 with his wife Isabelle by his side. We are comforted in knowing that Ray is now with his Lord Jesus Christ in heaven.

Ray was predeceased by his mother and father, Mollie and Nick Kohn, His father in law Elof Olson, Brothers in law Roy Thompson, George Hoare, and Earle Jellison.

Ray is survived by his wife of 60 years Isabelle, sons Greg, Rob, and Dale; His sisters Margaret Hoare and Mary Ann (Jack) Davis; sisters in law Doris Jellison, Nora Thompson and Iris Frank; Brothers in law David (Shirley) Olson, and Ed (Betty) Olson; as well as numerous Nieces and Nephews.
