23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall
follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Obituary

Ann Charlotte (Wilson) Berry, age 96, of Cincinnati, Ohio, passed away on October 3, 2026.

She was born on February 2, 1930, in Worcester, Massachusetts, to the late Alganah Wilson and Virginia (Good) Wilson. She was united in marriage to the late Alonzo Berry Sr., and they shared 10 years together.

Ann was a strong, independent, and remarkable woman whose life was defined by faith, family, hard work, friendship, and love. She remained independent and lived life on her own terms until her passing at the age of 96–a testament to the strength, determination, and resilience that carried her throughout her long and beautiful life.

Ann was a faithful member of Bethel Baptist Church for over 50 years where her faith remained an important and enduring part of her life. She was a woman who knew the importance of prayer, fellowship, and staying connected to her church family.

Ann was also a hardworking woman who took great pride in her career as a press operator. She was dependable, dedicated, and rarely missed a day of work. Her strong work ethic was simply part of who she was. But those who knew Ann understood that she was about so much more than work and responsibility. She was truly the life of the party, with a love for dancing, laughter, conversation, and simply enjoying the company of others. Ann had a special gift for meaningful conversation and a natural way of making everyone feel welcome, valued, and appreciated. She found joy in life's simple pleasures, whether taking a walk, knitting hats and blankets, or spending precious time surrounded by family andfriends. Her kindness extended beyond those closest to her, as she lovingly donated handmade hats to the Children's Hospital and gifted hats and blankets to her friends.
Through these thoughtful gestures, Ann shared not only her talents but also her warmth, generosity, and love for others. It was in these moments of connection,laughter, and giving that Ann's beautiful spirit shone brightest.

Ann had a special place in her heart for younger women. She became a mentor, confidante, and friend to many of them, sharing her wisdom, encouragement, humor, and life experiences. She had a way of forming genuine friendships across generations, and the women she mentored will carry the lessons and memories she gave them throughout their own lives.

Ann lived her 96 years with strength, independence, dignity, and joy. She was a woman who worked hard, loved deeply, stayed faithful, made friends easily, and knew how to have a good time. Her presence brought warmth and laughter into the lives of those around her.

Her family and friends will forever cherish the memories of her strength, her wisdom, her laughter, her dancing, her conversations, and her unmistakable spirit.

Ann leaves behind a legacy that reaches far beyond her years–a legacy of faith, resilience, love, friendship, and family.

Though she will be deeply missed, the life she lived and the love she shared will continue to live on in the hearts of everyone who knew her. Rest peacefully, you lived a long, strong, beautiful life. Your work here is done, but your love, laughter, and legacy will live on forever.

Ann was preceded in death by her 8 siblings; Frank Wilson, Agnes Walter, Lillian Johnson, Vivian Evans, Alice Wilson, Jessie Frost, Winnifred Brice, and Harold Wilson and son Alonzo Berry, Jr.

She leaves to cherish her memory her two daughters; Elizabeth Berry and Bonita Overstreet (Tony); her seven grandchildren, Mark Berry, Sr. (Nasshecka), Tyra Berry, LaRay Berry, Sr., Nikia Berry, Cherest Berry, Timothy Overstreet (Alexis), and Matthew Overstreet; fourteen great grandchildren: Mark Berry, Jr., Cameron Berry, Markala Berry, Amiya Berry, Yriana Berry, Tamarius Berry, Zaire Twitty, Markyla Berry, LaRay Berry, Jr., Donye' Banks, Dalyn Berry, Sha'Don Banks, Le'Dre Heights and Ke'Sean Banks and one great great grandchild; Brooklyn Berry, and a host of host of nieces, nephews, extended family members, and dear friends. Banks, Dalyn Berry, Sha'Don Banks, Le"Dre Heights and Keyshawn Banks and one great great grandchild; Brooklyn Berry, and a host of nieces, nephews, extended family members, and dear friends.
