Do not stand at my grave and weep.

I am not there, I do not sleep.

I am the thousand winds that blow.

I am the diamond glint in the snow.

I am the sunlight on the ripened grain.

I am the autumn's gentle rain.

When you awaken in the morning hush,

I am the swift uplifting rush.

Of quiet birds in circled flight.

I am the soft stars that shine at night.

Do not stand at my grave and cry;

I am not there, I did not die

-Hopi Prayer

It is with great sadness that we announce the unexpected passing of Samuel Ryan Didluck; son of Karla Didluck and Trevor Didluck (Allison); brother to Max and Emma, grandson of Ken and Barb Miller and Sam (deceased) and Corinne Didluck; and a special nephew and cousin to many. Sam was born in Calgary, Alberta where he spent most of his youth. Most recently, Sam lived in Red Lake, Ontario where he worked in construction, and met many new friends. He was a natural athlete who excelled at every sport he played including, soccer, baseball, lacrosse, and football. Sam loved fishing, camping, and the outdoors. He shared his love of shitty music with his parents and siblings. Sam had a kind, caring soul and always help others whenever he could. He had an infectious smile and laugh and will be missed by all that knew and loved him.

If friends so desire, memorial tributes may be made directly to Gone to Soon at <http://secure.calgaryhealthtrust.ca/samueldidluck>
