

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun sets for me. I want no rites in a gloom filled room, why cry for a soul set free. Miss me a Little but not too long, and not with your head bowed low Remember the love that we all once shared, Miss Me but Let Me Go. For this is a journey that we all must take and each must go a lone. Its all part of the Masters plan a stop on the road to home. When you are lonely, sick and sick of heart go to the friends we know and bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.

“Well done, good and faithful servant.”

— Matthew 25:23

A Life of Quiet Strength and Endless Grace

Her Life & Legacy

Ruby Dell Boone Robinson peacefully transitioned from this life on November 4, 2025, at the age of 97. She was born on November 3, 1928, in Jesup, Georgia. She was the only child of Marion Boone and Mary Etta Reddish Boone. Ruby lived a long and fulfilling life devoted to faith, family, and service to others.

She was a proud graduate of Old Stanton High School, Class of 1948, and later attended Brewster Hospital and School of Nurse Training in 1950, where she became a Licensed Practical Nurse. In addition to her nursing career, Ruby was a gifted Seamstress and Tailor by trade, spending many days working alongside her father at Boone Cleaners and Tailoring, a family business where she perfected her craft and shared her talents with the community.

On May 25, 1968, Ruby married David Robinson, and together they shared a loving partnership built on devotion, mutual respect, and faith.

Ruby was a woman of strong values, quiet strength, and endless compassion. Her love for her family was evident in all that she did, and her wisdom and warmth left a lasting impression on everyone blessed to know her.

Ruby's faith was a guiding light in her life. She loved God deeply and enjoyed attending church. She became a dedicated member of Mt. Lebanon Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. Freddie Sumner, where her devotion and joyful spirit touched many hearts.

She was preceded in death by her husband, David Robinson, and her longtime friend, James Lovelace.

She leaves to cherish her memory her child, Al Boone (Yvonne) of Jacksonville, FL; bonus children, Davette Sassnett of Pontiac, MI, Dale Robinson of Jacksonville, FL, and Donald Robinson (Chun Feng) of St. Augustine, FL; grandchildren, Tommie Hartley (Consuelo), Shonda Brown (Warren), Tanya Scott, Alan Boone, and Alanna Murphy (Levoughn); 16 great-grandchildren, 2 great-great-grandchildren, and God-daughter Kiara Leggett. She affectionately called her, along with all her little ones, "Ruby's Darlings." She also leaves behind a host of extended family and friends who will forever treasure her memory.

Though she has left this earthly home, Ruby's spirit will continue to shine in the hearts of all who were blessed to know her — a lasting reflection of her love, kindness, and grace.
