

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no tears in a gloom filled room
Why cry for soul set free

For this is a journey we will all must take
And each must go alone
It's all a part of the masters plan
A step on the road to home

Miss me a little but not for long
Not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me but let me go

Rebecca Garson-Flett

January 25, 1994—April 24, 2022 Age 78 years

Rebecca Flett, was born January 25th 1944 in Split Lake, Manitoba to John George & Anna Marie Garson. Rebecca was raised in Split Lake with her siblings.

As a young woman, Rebecca attended day school in Split Lake. She also attended Indian residential school for 10 years. Throughout her younger adult years she would also work at the nursing station along side her friend Lydia in Split Lake, MB. Rebecca would eventually leave Split Lake and move to Thompson where she would marry and have two children.

In 1972 Rebecca later would move to The Pas, MB., where she found work at The Pas Health Complex and would be employed for 30 years. She often talked about her coworkers and how much she enjoyed working along side them. Rebecca would retire after that, but she found it hard being home and was needing to do something to keep herself busy and would find employment at the Wescana Inn as a housekeeper for a few more years.

Rebecca had many hobbies, such as beading and sewing. Every time one of the kids needed a zipper fixed we knew where to go. If something ripped we knew who to call and without hesitation she would tell us “bring it over” she would also take a loving into the sport of hockey. You would often see her sitting in section A with her husband and grandchildren by there side. Her favorite NHL hockey team was Winnipeg jets, every time you would go into her home she was watching a hockey game.

She loved travelling along with her husband when he was employed as the bus driver for the OCN blizzard. Rebecca also loved her bingo where she would go a lot of the times with her husband butler. If he wasn't with her she would go with her nephew Ken and niece April. After her husband would pick her up and this one time he watched her come out after it was over and she hoped into a different vehicle and her husband laughed at her. It was always a story she would share and laugh at. She would tell us stories on how she would go to the casino for coffee with her dear friend Brenda, she would call the casino the cunsino.

Rebecca during her time In The Pas would eventually meet her partner Henry Flett who she would marry after being with him 45 years on October 22, 2014. Rebecca and Henry did not have any children together but they loved and cared for the nieces and nephew and would often have them all sleeping at there house. Together they raised Bert Flett at the age of 5-6 years of age till he was 15 years old, also step-daughter Jackie Fluery from Cumberland House, Saskatchewan.

Rebecca loved road trips with her late husband Henry and they would go to Split Lake for visits and travel to Thompson for bingo. Butler was known to have a heavy foot while driving on the highways. On there way back to The Pas, he was clocked speeding. He quickly looked at Rebecca and told her to start shaking, so she did. As the cop comes to the window the cops says to butler “do you know why I pulled you over?” his reply was “yes, but I am trying to get my wife to the store up ahead to get her sugar because she is going into a low sugar” cop goes back to his car turns on his lights and guides them to the store. That's the story how uncle and auntie Rebecca got out of a speeding ticket. She missed her husband dearly and would often share stories of him and how crazy he was. But most importantly the love they had for one another.
