WHAT A BOND TO BREAK?! A DAUGHTER'S PRAYER

To take my one and only away Breaking my heart because he could not stay

Leaving his daughter for us to love and raise Reminding her of the memories we have to praise
Remembering his smile,
love and laugh

Hoping that this pain
someday to shall pass
Still never giving up on you that's a thing I would never do

It's a long time coming but I know you'll help me get through Because what better team is it out there, other than me and you

Love always, Dukes

No longer can you watch me grow
but in my heart I'll always know,
That you will never leave my side
I'll carry on your name with pride no matter what this life shall bring my love for you will never change
I'm much to young to understand they say that god had better plans
I appreciate the time we had
I could not have had a better dad as you make your way through heaven's gates

I pray your soul the lord will take

I love you Dad, Malani

WYZAIR'S LIFE STORY

Sunrise: February 29, 2000 • Sunset: October 8, 2023

Wyzair Brown-Page passed away at the age of 23, on October 8, 2023. Wyzair was born in 2000, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on the 29th day of February to Tyisha Page and Wadic Brown. Yes, a leap year baby, can you believe it. That's how you knew he was special.

He went to Cleveland and Edward T. Steele Elementary School, William Dick Middle School and Olney High School where he met countless numbers of friends who turned into family. Wyzair finished his senior year at Olney High where he received his High School Diploma. He grew up in the Hunting Park section (3800 & 3900). He played football for the North Philadelphia Aztecs little league. Wyzair also spent some summers at his neighborhood church's camps. Some summers he would also help his grandmother give out free lunches and back to school supplies. His favorite team was the Kansas City Chiefs. He also cheered for the Eagles as long we wasn't playing his team. He worked at ShopRite in the year of 2018/2019. He also helped work with his mother with caring for his sickly grandmother Arlene and disabled aunt Tasha.

If you knew Wyzair, you knew his smile. That smile and laugh could light up the darkest room. From him bidding and singing to him dancing and trying to catch the beat. Listening to him yell at the game or see him walking down the street with his ear pods in. One way or another you was going to smile and laugh around him. He also was very respectful and well mannered. Especially to his elders. Loyal and always wanted to help and protect the people around him. Whether he knew you personally or not. Wyzair would make sure you ate or had a place to stay. Even if he had the whole block in his house, as long as everyone was good, it made him happy. He just had a caring soul all the way around. Wyzair was a great father. Loving and caring to his only child, Malani Page. Every time you saw Wawa he had her. And if he didn't, he either on his way to get her or just dropped her off to her mother Tamira or glam-mom Tyisha. He will be deeply missed by his family, friends and all who knew him.

He is preceded in death by his late grandfather James Brown, great grandparents, his uncle Sabree, baby brother Saadiq and best friend Luke (LA). He leaves to cherish his memories: surviving mother Tyisha Page, father Wadic Brown, daughter Malani Page, grandmothers Arlene Tomoney/Hall and Dorothy Jennings, grandfather Tyrone Page, sister Samiyah, brother Dyhmir, Saair and Samir, step mother Yolanda, step sister and brothers Dayona, Reese and Sade, special aunts Tasha, Lecky and Lucky, special uncles Tyrone and Julio. A host of aunts, uncles, cousins, countless friends and the whole 3800 and 3900 family.

I only have a picture now,
A frozen piece of time,
To remind me of how it was
When you were here and mine.

I see your smiling eyes
Each morning when I wake.
I talk to you and place a kiss
Upon your lovely face.

How much I miss you being here,
I really cannot say.
The ache is deep inside my heart
And never goes away.

I hear it mentioned often
That time will heal the pain,
But if I'm being honest,
I hope it will remain.

I need to feel you constantly,
To get me through the day.
I loved you so very much.
Why did you go away?

The angels came and took you,
That really wasn't fair.
They took my one and only son,
My future life, my heir.

If only they had asked me
If I would take your place.
I would have done so willingly,
Leaving you this world to grace.

You should have had so many years
To watch your life unfold,
And in the midst of this,
Watch me, your Mum, grow old!

I hope you're watching from above,
At the daily tasks I do,
And let there be no doubt at all,
I really do love you.

From, a grieving Mother
